„Cinema of Tomorrow“ 13th International Conference of Film Students and Young Filmmakers 24.11.-30.11.2003

Dear students, dear young film-makers,

„Cinema of Tomorrow“ is the motto of the 13th International Conference within the 17th Days of Independent Film. The goal of the Conference is to draw the unbiased attention of the audience, the film- experts and the press to the work of the young film-makers. Explosive questions should lead to interesting discussions. The exchange of experiences about making film from the first idea to the end of the production should help and encourage. The Conference is also a great opportunity to establish contacts for the future.

In order to take part in the 13th International Conference of young students and film-makers you have to submit your own film (participation as a director, editor, producer etc.) and attend the work-shops. The work-shops consist of lecturers and seminar papers in the morning and in the afternoon. In the evening your films will be shown in one of the festival cinemas. The participation is free. All participants receive an accreditation for the entire film festival.

If you are interested, please send the enclosed application form till the 30th Oktober 2003 to the festival office. The number of participants is limited. You will also discover the application form on our homepage www.filmfest-augsburg.de. You will find further information about the festival etc. on our homepage.
