Dear Film students and young Filmmaker ,
Filmfestival Augsburg invites you to:

”Cinema of Tomorrow” is the motto of the 15th International Conference within the 19th Days of Independent Film. The goal of the Conference is to draw the unbiased attention of the audience, the film- experts and the press to the work of the young filmmakers. Explosive questions should lead to interesting discussions. The exchange of experiences about making film from the first idea to the end of the production should help and encourage. The Conference is also a great opportunity to establish contacts for the future.

In order to take part in the 15th International Conference of young students and film-makers you have to submit your own film (participation as a director, editor, producer etc.) and attend the work-shops. The work-shops consist of lecturers and seminar papers in the morning and in the afternoon. In the evening your films will be shown in one of the festival cinemas. The participation is free. All participants receive an accreditation for the entire film festival.

If you are interested, please send the enclosed application form to the festival office. The number of participants is limited. You will also discover the application form on our homepage www.filmfest-augsburg.de. Your Filmfestteam
